

Questioning

Opening words and Chalice lighting:

Take the attitude of a student, never be too big to ask questions, never know too much to learn something new.

Og Mandino

Welcome and check-in (A time to share what is on your mind in order to clear it and be in the present.)

Reading for discussion

The real purpose of education is to have a [person] in the condition of continually asking questions.

Bishop Mandell Creighton

Judge a [person] by her questions rather than by her answers.

Voltaire

The wise [person] doesn't give the right answers, he poses the right questions.

Clause Levi-Strauss

To be conscious that you are ignorant is a great step to knowledge.

Benjamin Disraeli

Questions for discussion

- What are your "big questions"?
- Is there a difference between wondering and questioning?
- How important is it to question?

Check-out (A time to share likes and wishes, such as "I like how we..." "I wish we would...", or express how you felt about the group.)

Closing words and extinguishing the Chalice:

Try to learn something about everything and everything about something.

Thomas Henry Huxley

Thanks to everyone for their participation and commitment to our group!
